WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 39, 1861.

MEN OF LOUISVILLE !- The patriotic ladies of our city, who have undertaken to supply make individual calls upon all the men to obtain the cooperation they desire. The ladies, therefore, sequest that the patriotic men of Louisville will assemble and moet them AT THE COURT HOUSE THIS LVENING, so that the money donations to enable the ladies to buy materials to be worked up, or, at the option of the gentlemen, the materials themselves, may be obtained with the least possible delay. Every father, husband, or son, who claims to be a patriot, or wishes to be regarded as a patriot in the esteem of the gentler sex, should be present on this occasion. If the meet interesting ever held in our city Every dictate of gratitude, every sentiment of bumanity, and every prompting of the angel quality of charity, call upon our fellow-men to respond promptly and liberally to the ladies' appeal. The autumnal frests are now rendering camp life very uncomfortable, many are in the midst of it who have been delivately nurtured, whose mants have been ministered I'st home by a mother' watchful care or a terribly in this rigorous season unless seasons. ble relief be afforded. There is a swelly a family in the city which cannot space a blanket or a overlet. Let all such articles be contributed. No one will feel them bess in comfortably. heated bed-rooms, and the will shelter brave hearts from mercing cold Let busy tingers kait stocking and sew drawer, and undershirts. And above all lot liberal purees be presented to the lall to night to buy vara, flannel, or whatever else may be needed. We have seen large sums expended at I airs in our city. To-night we are to have a l'atrious Fair, and he who contributes the largest to its purposes will receive the sweet reward of female thanks, and a far greater consolation in the consciousness of having notify performed a parriot's duty. The Court-house this (Wednesday) evening, at 74 o'clock, must be the gathering place, and let no true Union man feil to attend. If you cannot give much, give as you can afford, but let every one give

COMPORISTOR THE S LDILEE-THE LOYAL LADIES OF THIS REGION.-We are confident that if the champions of Kentneky renown, of Kentucky's honor, and of her unsuffied integrity could form any just conception of the enthusiasm, zeal, energy, and devotion, which the loyal ladies of this city are exercising in preparing winter comforts for them, their bearts would be greatly warmed in advance of the material and which the ladies are preparing for them. Lvery ward that we have heard from sends forth the most cheering and invigorating news of the proceedings of yesterday, among the various wards. 'The banner ward of lovalty must look well to its nobly-carned laurels, for cuch ward seems to be carneatly contending for the post of honor in this great work of substantial sympathy for the champrons of freedom, for the defender, of the soil of Kentucky. The noble deeds of Kentucky women will nerve the arms of the loyal solery to the Commonwealth, for if the loyal women of Kuntucky are not worth fighting for, any peril, against any olds, there has never been any object on earth worthy of a sellier's trusty aim or trenchant blade. We are great'y resoiced in the news from yesterday 2 proceedings of the ladies. May they continue as worthily as they have

May we venture a suggestion to the ladical The labor, time, and cost of making garmente of good material are not greater than these expended upon a poor, elegay article, but the difference to the soldiers in camp is worldwide. What we mentioned as a fact than emains a fact still. Even to this day not a esion organ in Kentucky, or, so far as we can learn, in any one of the secoding States, has stated the trut, in relation to this matter. All of them published column after column the objectionable features of the Fremont probest, some ly their pertinacious silence, some by vague and indefinite allusions to the atrocity of the document, to make t' cir readers behere it is still in full force and will be executed to the letter if the whole power of the Administration can execute it

This is a specimen, and only an average one, of the fraud, the deception, the imposition, the trickery, the knaver . by which the Confederate organs, acting no doubt under the instructions of their masters, practice for the purpose of keeping the Southern people excited and exasperated to such a degree that they will consent to submit to all the hardship, oppression, and tyranny, to which they are enbiected by their Government. It is certainly a most miscrable condition of affairs.

The Confederates, afrald of the indigna tion of the people of Kentucky, say now that the destruction of Green River bridge by Buckner's men was all a mistake, growing out of a misunderstanding of Buckner's orders. The Confederate States have made war upon Kontucky to subjugate her as one of their provinces, and many of her degenerate and ignoble sone have curted innovatal infamy by taking up arms against their mother to aid in reducing her to this clavery. Important military events are about to take place in the State that will decide this general contest, and restore the Union and secure liberty to the American people. The column that is operating against the traiters in the direction of Prestonaburg and Pikeville, is overwheimingly strong in infantry and artiflery, but its defective in avairy, owing to the character of the construction of the stone of the contracter of the construction of the stone of secession and traiters and true men of the gallant counties supply that defect by raising a large body of mounted guimen, to serve for thirty days. SEIRMEN AT WARRAW, K1 .- The neighbor hood of Warsaw, Ky., has been ounsiderably an noved of late by a gang of secondien rancals led by a reckless fellow named Luther Green, and all eorts of petty outrages have been committed or Upion men by these outlaws. On Saturday las lowever, a complete non plus was put to their proceedings by a little hand of Unio sclunteers, numbering eighteen or twenty, under Cantain Howe, who is recruiting at Camp Boyle, on Faint Lat Creak, near Watsaw. The Cincinnati Ganette says that, on the morning f that day, two coldiars of Captain Howes company were sur presed by Green a gang and made prisoners, and it e stated that they were about to be hing when the neve reached camp. The little party mentroned immediately started in pursuit, and, after a brick walk of eix miles, they came in view of the rebel party, which numbered thirty or forly, and a chirmish ensued. The rebels tock to fight; but two of them (Robert Breaden and T. J. Hugher) were abot dead, and Green was taken The two Union soldiers were recovered, and a number of small arms and a quantity of personal property were so urel. Green arrived at Cincinon Monday and was sont to Camp Chase.

Washington, Uctober 28.

Gen. Scott will volumearily ratire from his rank and duties within the next ten days, solely on account of his physical latirnities. The recent act of Congress provided that there should be no reduction in his pay, substatence, or allowances, in the event of the withdrawal. It is well known that Gen. Scott has had an unsettled account with the War Department since the Mexican War. Secretary Cameron has recently given a careful examination to his claims, now 13 years chl. Jeff Davis a muligolity brought him In debt on eccount of his expenditures and receipts in Mexico, and in so far as that Secretary's report could have, it discretized him as a manarial agent of the Government. Secretary Cameron has reported that Gon. Sectt was not only entitled to the money be claimed of the Government, but that he saved it milliens of dollars, which, by the laws of war, he could have pocked under the settled principles regulating the distribution of prices and contribution money. This opportunity for personal advantage, Winhield Scott generously diverted to the founding of a home for invalid soldiers. One of his monuments, long after he le dead, will be the Soldiers. AN AFFECTING INCIDENT IN CAMP—Unexpected Meeting and Recognition of Two Sisters after a Separation of Theory Years.—Last week while Mrs. McNutt, wife of Gov. McNutt, of Douglaswills, Illinois, was huckstering in Camp Loosia, Mrs. Keener, wife of Capt. Keener, came out of her tent to buy something. Mrs. McNutt bad frequently visited the camp before, huckstering, and thought that Mrs. Keener's countenance looked furfur to har, so on the day mentioned.

The Hon. J. S. Chrisman, of the rebel at and thought that Mr. Leeser's countenance looked farther to har, so on the day mentioned, when Mrs. Keener ame out, Efric. Messare the test and the lenger che looked at her the more she breame convinced of the fact and marved again that she must have once known her. Mrs. Keener also thought she had seen her keener also thought she had reen Mrs. M. before. Mrs. M. then asked her if her christian name was not Rachel. Mrs. K. replied that it was, when they then both recognized each other as sisters, and with low shricks and tears of my rushed into each other a zero, end greated such other after a cenara to of wanty years.

There is quiter remanes connected with the two families. Governor McNutt having been reduced from opinered to stringancy by the extravagance of his sons, who ended their career by entering Walker's unfortunats Messagaan expedition, and Captain Keener left the dragoon service some years since and went to preaching. vica some years since and went to practileg. THE GREAT NAVAL EXPEDITION.—By the time there lines are read by the public the great naval expedition will have reached it adestination. Some twenty-two or twanty-throe first-class eteam transports and six or seven large sationg vessels are known to have randezvoused at Annapilis and Fortrees Monres to convey the troope, supplies, and munitions of war. It is believed that these vessels have departed with an army of not less than 30,000 men, with due propertions of cavalry and artillery the whole neder the command of Major General Sherman, late of Sherman's Battery. The treest Republic alone, which was towed by the Vanderbilt, took over the horses, besides a large quantity of desires and five age. Two other vessels also carried between the theta war lartillery. Other vessel in the fleet were laden with timber, bricks, hou and ready built, and tools of all aines for the eraction of fortifications, so that it may cately be assumed that the expeditionary fire at the lartice of remain sense time where it hands.

The landing will be affected under the cover of the tre of a powerful fleet of unre-of-war. It is whippered, however, that not less than a mas of heavy calibre will be longified to be a sound of the vessels will constitute this day.

NEW CAMF AT CRAP ORCHARD.

CRAP OROMARD, Kr., Oct. 25, 1861.

Since daybreak yester lay morning detable ments of cavalry, from two to ten each, have been constantly passing through town on their way to Camp Dick Robinson. Testerday Coartermaster from Mr. J. H. Caldwell his large new burn and the lower stery of two other large buildings for commissary stores and summunition, all the spare rooms in the hot.! for officers' quarters, about 42 acres of ground for encompment, &c.

A part of Col. Fry's regiment arrived here this morning and encamped, while the remainder are expected this afternoon. There will probably be a detachment of cavalry also slationed here. I learn from persons direct from Camp Wildcat that soouts have been sent cut as far as London without meeting any of the enemy. You will before this have received the full report of the battle.

This is a beautiful and healthy location for an encampment, and is withal a central position, being in close proximity to the roads on which troops will most likely be needed. The Quartermaster is a vary encagence and businesse-like man, and seems capable of performing any amount of labor approximite to the position he holds.
